COMMEMORATIONS FOR THE WEEK

Thursday, October 23, 2025
James of Jerusalem, martyr, died around 62

One of three early-church leaders named James, this man is identified in the New Testament and by a historian of the time as a brother of Jesus. Scholars are uncertain whether this means a blood brother. He was a leader of the church in Jerusalem.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

DONATIONS MADE EASY – Keep an eye open for a verse or prayer in the Sunday bulletins that mentions a food item. Please bring the food items mentioned for that month. October's food pantry request comes from a reading from Luke 14:5, 6. The Apostles ask Jesus to make their faith stronger. Jesus replies, "your faith must be big as a mustard seed." Faith makes us strong, and you grow. Church in Community asks that you bring in items like seeds of change, rice or peanut butter. Please bring microwaveable or packaged foods.

CROP WALK SUNDAY – in happening today! Location: Nampa Seventh Day Adventist Church [307 W. Iowa Ave, Nampa]. Contact Kristina Radke for more details.

GRATITUDE – What "gratitude activity" have you done this week? Sent a note, email or e-card? Thanked someone in person? Gave a thoughtful little gift? Who in your life probably really needs to hear that others are grateful that he or she exists? Your gratitude can truly make someone's day.

TIME AND TALENT -- This month we are focusing on the many and varied opportunities to volunteer here at Trinity. For children and adults of all ages. On Sunday morning or during the week. On a weekly or an occasional basis. Ways that feel very spiritual and ways that are more physical. All are crucial to our ministries. Volunteers sign up forms (aka time-and-talent sheets) are available today. If you have not already done so, please fill yours out and return it to the wicker basket in the sanctuary.

COMMITMENT SUNDAY -- is next Sunday October 26th. We invite you to bring your completed Statement of Intent card with you to church that day. Those cards and the Time and Talent sheets will be blessed during the worship service. If you will be gone next Sunday, please leave it at the church office or mail it to the church.

VISIONING IN 2026 -- Each of the first three Sundays of this month, we will have a lay person speaking about his/her personal experience with "visioning" - also known as discernment or "who am I now, what's important to me, and where do I see myself in 5 years". We hope these stories will help de-mystify the visioning process and get you excited about participating in Trinity's visioning journey in 2026. Our thanks to Mary Braudrick for sharing her thoughts today.

TRUNK OR TREAT – West Learning Center will be hosting a trunk or treat on October 29th. If you are interested in helping or even supplying some candy for them, please contact the VanAtters.

WORD

God speaks to us in scripture, preaching, and song.

FIRST READING: Genesis 32:22-31

Returning to the home he had fled many years before after stealing his brother's birthright and his father's blessing, Jacob wrestles all night long with a divine adversary who ultimately blesses him and changes his name to "Israel," a name that means "he wrestles with God."

²² The same night [Jacob] got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. ²³ He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. ²⁴ Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. ²⁵ When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket, and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. ²⁶ Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." ²⁷ So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." ²⁸ Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans and have prevailed."

DISMISSAL

A: Go in peace. Share the good news.

C: Thanks be to God.

C: I love this Church!

Consider taking your bulletin home with you so that you can pray for those on our prayer list during the week and will know what activities are happening this week at Trinity.

 our love in hand of neigh - bor; our home-land bright-ly gleams.

Make lib - er - ty a bea - con, strike down the i - ron pow'r;

²⁹ Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. ³⁰ So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, yet my life is preserved." ³¹ The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

R: Word of God, word of life.

C: Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 121

R: ¹ I lift up my eyes to the hills; from where is my help to come?

C: ² My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.

R: ³ The Lord will not let your foot be moved nor will the one who watches over you fall asleep.

C: ⁴ Behold, the keeper of Israel will neither slumber nor sleep;

All: My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.

R: ⁵ the Lord watches over you; the Lord is your shade at your right hand;

C: ⁶ the sun will not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.

R: ⁷ The Lord will preserve you from all evil and will keep your life.

C: ⁸ The Lord will watch over your going out and your coming in, from this time forth forevermore.

All: My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.

SECOND READING: 2 Timothy 3:14—4:5

The writer of this letter continues his instruction of Timothy, his younger colleague in ministry, by emphasizing the importance of faithful teaching despite opposition.

¹⁴ But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it ¹⁵ and how from childhood you have known sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

¹⁶ All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, ¹⁷ so that the person of God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

^{4:1} In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: ² proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage with the utmost patience in teaching. ³ For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound teaching, but, having their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires ⁴ and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. ⁵ As for you, be sober in everything, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

R: Word of God, word of life.
C: Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

GOSPEL: Luke 18:1-8
Jesus tells a parable of an unjust judge who is worn down by a widow's pleas. Jesus is calling God's people to cry out for justice and deliverance. For if an unethical judge will ultimately grant the plea of a persistent widow, how much more will God respond to those who call.

¹ Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. ² He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. ³ In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my accuser.' ⁴ For a while he refused, but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, ⁵ yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.' " ⁶ And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. ⁷ And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? ⁸ I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"
